College-Level Books on Electricity, Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics PDF ebook .Q: Set gridview datasource at runtime I have a DataTable generated from access and I want to set that datasource to be the gridview. I have a label that gets the name of the grid and so I want to change the datasource, but I cant seem to find how to change it, is it possible? A: You should be able to use `grid.DataSource = newTableName;`

to set the datasource. A: protected
