"All of you are pretty much awesome, I have an awesomely beautiful day!!!" 659 So.2d 881 (1995) Keith HARN v. PENSACOLA CONSTRUCTION CO., INC. No. 95-C-0945. Supreme Court of Louisiana. June 27, 1995. Denied. LEMMON, J., would grant the writ. NOTES [1] The grant of certiorari and the recusal motion were granted on the basis of this Court's decision in Reeves v. Louisiana State, 472 So.2d 7, 10 (La.1985), wherein the Court held that the Sixth Amendment requires that, except for the jury, all criminal cases be tried before the judge alone. [2] The record of the recusal motion indicates that, following the denial of the motion to recuse and prior to sentencing, the defendant's counsel moved that the trial judge be appointed as his counsel on appeal. [3] La.C.Cr.P. art. 924 was repealed by Acts 1989, No. 331, § 1, effective January 1, 1990. The new article, La.C.Cr.P. art. 851, has been applied retroactively. State v. Adger, 623 So.2d 1188 (La.App. 3d Cir.1993); State v. Rogers, 563 So.2d 1325 (La.App. 2d Cir.1990); State v. Dupre, 492 So.2d 909 (La.App. 5th Cir.1986), writ denied, 497 So.2d 312 (La.1986). La.C.Cr.P. art. 851 provides, in pertinent part: Art. 851. Appeal by defendant A. An appeal is allowed upon the granting of a new trial, upon the granting of a motion in arrest of judgment, upon a judgment of guilty * * * of noncapital felony, or upon a judgment of guilty of a misdemeanor. B. Except as provided in Article 860, an appeal by 80eaf3aba8

Februar 2016 Home » Business » News » MPCA expands coffee school in Brainerd MPCA expands coffee school in Brainerd 4/4/2013 St. Cloud, Minn. - The Minnesota Pollution Control Agency (MPCA) is planning to expand its Coffee School for two reasons: By offering a new course that prepares students for careers in coffee brewing and increasing the number of students enrolled in the existing course. "One out of five of the people that apply for this training gets accepted, and many of these applicants have families that rely on their income," said MPCA Drinking Water Branch Chief Craig Simon. "The Coffee School has proven to be a popular career option for students who want to provide a stable income while working in their own hobby." Enrollment in the new, morning course will begin in April. The course provides instruction in coffee handling, coffee preparation and cup-decanting. Students will learn how to measure and blend coffee and how to prepare specialty drinks. For more information about the Coffee School, visit the MPCA Web site at www.mpp.state.mn.us/certifiedcoffee.Q: Why doesn't my code work when I'm trying to multiply int by
